

Core, in-kind, contracted and/or co-located services offered by/via CCE programs as of March 2020

HerWay Home Victoria, British Columbia

Opened in 2013 after 5 years of planning
Funded and operated by Island Health with additional funding from Children's Foundation of Vancouver Island

Core services/programming

Outreach; Drop-in/wellness groups; Substance use and Trauma support groups and one to one counselling; One to one support in variety of life areas; Prenatal/postnatal Group; Food/nutrition and basic needs support

In-kind services on-site

Primary health: Primary care physician; physicians specializing in addictions & maternity care; public health nurse; nurse practitioner
Health & wellness: Community nutritionist; dental hygienist
Children's health: PHN, immunizations, well baby checks

Contracted services

Housing: Rent supplements; 4 care home beds for women age 16-24

Sheway Vancouver, British Columbia

Opened in 1993 – 1st program of its kind in Canada
Funded and operated by Vancouver Coastal Health, with additional resources from BC Ministry for Children and Family Development, Vancouver Native Health Society, BC Ministry for Housing and Social Development & YWCA

Core services/programming

Outreach; Drop-in groups, parenting skills groups; Substance use groups and one to one counselling; One to one support in variety of life areas; Food/nutrition and basic needs support
Primary health: Primary care physicians; addictions & maternity care physician; nurses; psychiatrist
Child welfare: BC government child welfare social worker
Cultural: Elder services

In-kind services on site

Health & wellness: Dental hygienist; occupational therapist; physiotherapist
Children's health: Paediatrician; speech & language therapist
Income support: Community Intervention Specialist

Contracted services on site

Health & wellness: Music therapist
Legal: Lawyer

Co-located services:

Housing: YWCA supportive housing
Daycare: YWCA drop in day care

Maxxine Wright Surrey, British Columbia

Opened in 2005, extensive community planning
Funded and operated by Fraser Health; additional in-kind support from the BC Ministry for Children and Family Development and the BC Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction.

Core services/programming

Access to health services (PHN, Nurse Practitioner, prescriptions, opioid agonist therapy) and child health services (immunizations, baby weight, well baby checks); prenatal/post natal services; substance use counselling

In-kind services on site

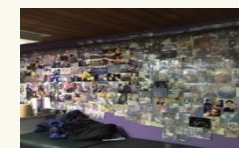

Primary health: Physician specializing in obstetrics; maternal-fetal medicine
Health & wellness: Psychiatrist/reproductive psychiatry
Children's health: Paediatrician; infant development
Child welfare: BC gov't child welfare social worker
Income support: BC gov't income assistance worker

Contracted services on site

Health & wellness: Doulas; Midwives

Co-located services: Atira Women's Resource Society

Food support; parenting: drop-in groups; daily meal
Prenatal/postnatal: pregnancy outreach worker
Housing: supportive housing
Daycare: daycare
Cultural: Elder services

H.E.R. Edmonton, Alberta

Opened in 2011
Funded primarily by Alberta Health and operated by Streetworks, a non-profit community-based organization

Core services/programming

Outreach; weekly drop-in group; food/nutrition and basic needs support; child welfare support; on-site STI and pregnancy testing; one to one support in variety of life areas; transportation and accompaniment

Co-located services:

Boyle Street Community Services

Health & wellness: Boyle Street Community Services mental health and wellness
Children's health: Boyle Street Community Services 'Health for two'
Child welfare: AB government child welfare social worker
Cultural: Boyle Street Community Services Elder services

Core, in-kind, contracted and/or co-located services offered by/via CCE programs (con't)

Raising Hope Regina, Saskatchewan

Opened in 2013; the only fully residential program in the CCE study
Funded by the Ministry of Social Services, Saskatchewan Health Authority and the Department of Justice, Canada; operated by a community-based agency with an Indigenous housing organization as a partner.

Core services/programming

Supported housing (18-unit apt building);
Food and basic needs support; childcare;
Drop-in /peer connections;
Mental health/trauma counselling;
Cultural programming

In-kind services on site

Primary health: Primary care physician
Health and wellness: Addictions counsellor; wellness therapist;
Child welfare: SK government child welfare social worker
Parenting: Regina Early Learning Centre – Triple P Parenting

Contracted services on site

Health & wellness: Psychologist; art therapist; life skills & healing

Mothering Project Winnipeg, Manitoba

Opened in 2013, program of Mt Carmel Clinic
Funded by Healthy Child Manitoba and Winnipeg Regional Health Authority.

Core services/programming

Drop-in groups;
Food and basic needs support;
Outreach, transportation and accompaniment;
Addictions counselling one-to-one;
Life skills and mental health/trauma groups;
One to one support in variety of life areas;
Cultural programming

Co-located services with Mt Carmel Clinic

Primary health: primary care physician, nurse practitioner, public health nurse, midwifery

In-kind services on site

Primary health: nurse; Public health nurse
Health and wellness: Trauma counsellor; speech therapist
Childcare: Family Worker – Daycare Inclusion Specialist
Parenting: Parent Student Support Program; Families First

Breaking the Cycle Toronto, Ontario

Opened in 1995, operated by Mothercraft (non-profit society) and funded by the Public Health Agency of Canada and the Ontario Ministry of Child, Family and Community Services
Partnerships with child welfare, health and specialized medical services, addictions, and Indigenous health and family services.

Core services/programming

Food and basic needs support; childcare
Pregnancy outreach;
Relapse prevention groups and one-to-one addictions counselling;
Life skills groups; mental health/trauma groups;
Parenting/support groups for women with children prenatal to 6 years
Early intervention services for children
In-home visits weekly re: parenting;
individualized parent-child counselling

In-kind services on site

Health & wellness: addictions worker; public health nurse
Children's health: Developmental pediatrician (& FASD assessment); speech language services; infant development
Child welfare: ON government child welfare social worker participates in bi-weekly team meetings
Correctional services: Probation officer

Contracted services on site

Health & wellness: Psychological associate; Clinical child psychologist

Baby Basics New Glasgow, Nova Scotia

Opened in 1999; program of Kids First, a community agency and funded primarily by Public Health Agency of Canada's CPNP and CAP-C programs. Planned by and for women who wanted safe place for themselves and their families to come together
Goal is to strengthen parental and family capacity, skills, and social supports.

Core services/programming

Drop-in prenatal/postnatal groups and peer connection;
Food/nutrition and basic needs support;
Transportation support to access program; childcare;
In-home support when needed

In-kind services on-site by partner(s)

Health & wellness: Trauma Informed Parenting Support program;
Groups re: intimate partner violence and healthy relationships
Prenatal: Public health nurse